Garth Fagan Dance

"There is a beautiful purity to the choreography of Garth Fagan. His dancers balance on one foot for endless periods of time, leap into the air with no preparation, execute convoluted arm gestures while spinning their bodies like tops, but never with any sense of effort or artifice. This is movement that is clean, seamless and precise -- a surgeon's scalpel cutting through space."
 --- Paula Citron, The Globe and Mail, February 20, 1997

Sunday, 13 November 2005, 3:00 p.m.
Masters of Caribbean Music
